Numb. 4937

The London Gazette.

Publiſhed by Authority.

From Saturday December 8. to Tuesday December 11. 1711.

Warſaw, Novemb. 23. N. S.

THEY write from Leopold, That the Muſcovite Generals Czeremetoff and Ronne being arriv'd there, the Conference with the Poliſh Deputies were begun, about ſettling the Winter-Quarters of the Muſcovites in that Country. The Diſputes at firſt ran very high between 'em, the Deputies making great Complaints of the Diſorders committed by the Muſcovites, and demanding that they ſhould forthwith quit the Kingdom, otherwiſe they ſhould enter into ſuch Meaſures, as ſhould oblige 'em to it; ſo that 'twas believ'd, that Affair would be attended with great Difficulties; but at length the Propoſals of the Generals were comply'd with, and Quarters aſſign'd in the Neighbourhood of that Town. The Sieur Siniawski, Great General of the Crown, had wrote in very civil Terms to the Seraſquier Baſſa of Bender, acquainting him with the Reſolutions of the Poles to adhere to the Intereſt of King Auguſtus, and acknowledge no other King of Poland; hoping at the ſame time, that there would be a continuance of the good Correſpondence and Friendſhip between the Port and Republick, as had hitherto been. Our Advices from Wallachia confirm, that the Grand Vizir and the Cham of Tartary were ſent for to Conſtantinople, in order to aſſiſt at a great Council of War intended to be held there, the Reſult of which, and the Conſequence of the late Reconciliation between the Vizir and the King of Sueden, 'tis believed, will be the renewal of the War againſt the Muſcovites, upon Pretence, that they have not perform'd the Articles of the Peace concluded between the two Nations, in delaying to evacuate Azoph, and demoliſh the other Forts ſtipulated in the Treaty.

Hamburgh, Dec. 5. N. S. Letters from the Camp before Stralſund adviſe, that the Artillery lately landed at Grypſwald is at laſt arriv'd there. The King of Poland is retrenching the unneceſſary Expences of his Houſhold; and the Mony ariſing therefrom is intended to be put into the Military Cheſt, and employ'd towards defraying the Charges of the War. A Detachment from the Garriſon of Wiſmar has attempted to Surprize the Danes in their Quarters; but they met with ſo warm a Reception, that they were oblig'd to retire with great Precipitation, leaving ſeveral Kill'd and Wounded upon the Spot. Notwithſtanding which Diſcouragement, the Suedes ſtill continue their Excurſions; and one of their Parties lately intercepted the Poſt-Waggon going to Guſtrau, and made Priſoners a Daniſh Captain and a Cornet, who were coming hither to raiſe Recruits. Another Party has likewiſe taken a Convoy of Wine deſign'd for the King of Denmark's Uſe. Mr. Pultney, Envoy Extraordinary from the Queen of Great Britain to his Daniſh Majeſty, has receiv'd Orders to intercede with that Prince in behalf of the Duke of Mecklenburg, that the Daniſh Troops might not take their Winter-Quarters in that Dutchy; and 'twas hop'd the Repreſentations of the ſaid Miniſter would prevail with his Majeſty to eaſe the Country of ſo great a Burthen. We are advis'd from Stockholm, that a Project had been form'd there for making a Deſcent upon Daniſh Holſtein, in order to give a Diverſion, and the Execution of it earneſtly preſs'd; but that Deſign had been diſapprov'd by the Senate as too hazardous an Attempt, for that the Convoy employ'd in ſuch an Expedition would be in great Danger of being intercepted by the Daniſh Fleet then in thoſe Parts. The Marquis de Langalerie is arriv'd here with a Deſign to offer his Service to ſome of the Northern Princes, having at preſent no Employment. The laſt Letters from Copenhagen ſay, that the Contagion is entirely ceas'd in that City.

Hague, Decemb. 11. N. S. The Sieurs Capel, de Goſlinga and Vegelin van Claerbergen, who have been laſt Year in the Camp, in the Quality of Deputies from this Republick, have made a Report of the Execution of their Commiſſion to the Aſſembly of the States. Monſieur Capel having been appointed Deputy from the Province of Guelderland, to the College of the Admiralty at Amſterdam, has taken his Seat in that Council accordingly, and the Conferences about ſettling the Affairs of the Navy for the next Year are already begun. The States General have lately diſpos'd of ſeveral vacant Commiſſions in their Gift. The Foreign Miniſters wait for their inſtructions, after which they'll repair to Utrecht, where ſeveral Houſes are already hired for their Accomodation at the enſuing Congreſs. We have Advice from Bruſſels, that the Enemy having drawn together a great Body of Troops, had appear'd near Mortagne and Hannon, and have ſince made themſelves Maſters of the Poſt of Pont a Vendin, which they have intirely ruin'd, and are at work on filling up the Canal between Douay and Liſle, to render the Navigation of the ſame impracticable. Whereupon the Earl of Albemarle had given Orders for aſſembling from the Neighbouring Garriſons, a ſufficient Force to oppoſe the Enemy, and was gone with Major-General Ivoy, to put himſelf at the Head of 'em, and endeavour to diſappoint the further Deſigns of the French.

Hague, Dec. 18. N. S. On the Sixteenth Inſtant came an Expreſs, ſent by the Earl of Albemarle, with an Account that the ſtrong Body of Troops aſſembled under the Mareſchal Monteſquion, retir'd on the Fourteenth with the utmoſt Precipitation at the Approach of our Forces commanded by his Lordſhip, leaving behind 'em ſeveral Pieces of Cannon. However, the Enemy had time to break down the Bridges on the Deule, and ſink ſeveral Boats in the Scarp, for obſtructing the Navigation of thoſe Rivers to Douay: but 'tis aſſur'd the Damage they have done may be repair'd in a few Days. Great Numbers of Deſerters are come into the Frontier Towns, and 'tis computed the whole amount to fifteen-hundred Men. All our Forces are return'd to their reſpective Garriſons. Yeſterday in the Afternoon Prince Eugene arriv'd here from Frankfort, and ſoon after had a Conference with the Grand Penſionary. This Morning his Highneſs receiv'd Viſits from moſt of the Publick Miniſters, and in the Afternoon return'd that of his Excellency the Earl of Strafford, with whom he was in Conference two Hours.

The